Dear Mr. Sharma,

In response to your letter to me of May 16th inviting me to join in the International Press Conference for Religious Peace on October 4th, I express my whole-hearted support for the project and assure you that I shall be happy to participate therein.

Please let me know the structure of the conference and the form my participation should take.

With my thanks for your kind wishes during my illness and with warm regards.

Sincerely,

K. D. Irani

Dear Friends,

I thank you for your memorandum, update from the Board; I appreciate and support the views and sentiments. Thank you also for your good wishes.

My wife and I are leaving for India this evening. I shall be giving some lectures there, and also in England on the way back, and expect to return in six weeks.

With our best wishes for a
Happy New Year

Sincerely,
K. S. Iyengar
