My dear Friend:

I have received your letter of 9 February 1985.

Thank you very much for your generous gesture.

I feel great pleasure in accepting your invitation to be an Honoray Member of your Advisory and Lecture Board. I earnestly hope that it would create better understanding between people of diferent religions, cultures and traditions.

Thanking you once again

Sincerely,

My Dear Brother:

Greetings for the new Year. I am highly grateful for your kind letter of December 30, 1985, along with very beautiful photographs of the memorable occasion of our meeting together.

I was greatly impressed by your very liberal approach to mutual understanding and spirit of religious tolerance.

I am praying to our Common God to bestow on us an insight for the truth and the right path leading to establishment of peace in the world.

I also pray for a healthy, happy, successful and blessed life for you and your family. Extend my greetings for the new year to all the members of your family. With best wishes and prayers,

Yours truly,

Sheikh Mubarak Ahmad,
Amir and Muballigh Incharge USA

Dear president Ajata Sharma:

I am very pleased to participate in the International Press Conference for Religious Peace, which is sponsored by your organization. Thank you very much for inviting me and I look forward to being present for the occasion on October 4, 1985.

The premise for the Press Conference is timely, interesting, and challenging. I pray that the event will be outstandingly successful and will receive wide publicity, presented in a positive light.

Sincerely,

Sheikh Mubarak Ahmad,
